

Please allow XM Radio to continue providing valuable traffic and weather reports. I am a loyal listener to satellite radio, this is because of the excellent service they provide. If other radio and television services feel threatened, they should stand up to the competition and do as good a job!